

For All Those Sleeping (FATS) formed in October of 2007 from St. Cloud, Minnesota. FATS were quick to build a name for themselves with their hard hitting verses and melodic “sing a long” choruses, which quickly reached out to fans across the Midwest.

Don't let their name deceive you, For All Those Sleeping is most definitely awake and busy. In their first year, For All Those Sleeping appeared on the widely-known Van's Warped Tour and Cornerstone Festival all before releasing their debut EP “The Lies We Live” in September of 2008. 2009 proved to be equally as busy with regional touring, recording and appearances at Sunshine Festival and on MTV's DJ & The Fro. Despite early online, and regional success, the foundation of the band is a genuine love for their fans.

(were recording our debut album right now as well, with Cameron Mizell of Chango Studios, if that helps as well).
