

What started as a dream between six friends has grown stronger the past few months to create a new idea of music. The passion for a life of touring and making music has settled in the minds of each individual artist, setting a distant goal only reachable for themselves. With a passion so strong and generation so young, Scarlett O'Hara has dedicated themselves to performing and playing music. Scarlett O'Hara is currently in the process of finishing there EP with local producer "Charlie Vela".